VESTRY JOTTINGS

Hello everyone

After a User Group meeting a couple of weeks ago, it looks like some things might get back to some form of normality in September.

As you pray for members of our congregation keep that date in your prayers too.

The stewards are looking for volunteers to do readings. If you aren't on our list and you feel that you would like to help please get in touch with us.

Our thanks go to the Revd. Malcolm Groom and others who are helping Revd. Claire as her workload increases.

Brenda
On behalf of the stewards.

Recordings of the Morning Service

Currently the Morning Service which is on Zoom is also available on the Church Website (www.farehammethodist.org.uk) or as a DVD recording. Neither of these is available until the end of the week.

It seems possible that printed copies of the service may not be available every week as the situation returns to something similar to pre-Covid times. If you would like to join those already receiving a DVD recording of the service please contact Malcolm Race. The recordings can be played on a DVD player connected to a television or on a laptop computer.

Although the recording is not available for a few days, one current recipient watches her copy at the normal service time on the following Sunday to upload the sun every morning?”

Acts of Kindness Community (Solent)

We wish to thank everyone for all their kind donations at the church on 14th June. We were blown away with your generosity. We have been busier than ever this last month.

The charity is looking for new premises as the church wishes to reopen. We are hoping this can be a permanent site for us to expand what is currently happening. AOK not only provides food but also support in many other ways working together with other charities and agencies. The future for AOK is having a base where we can facilitate various support mechanisms for all ages.

All masks were worn in the hall but taken off just for the photos.
